Adverbial Phrases (AdvP or AP)

An adverbial phrase consists of an adverb which may be preceded and followed by other words. This means that it can have premodifiers and postmodifiers. The headword in an adverbial phrase is an adverb.

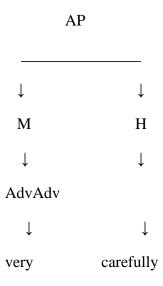

Most of adverbial phrases are normally simple. In complex adverbial phrases, there is normally only one premodifier or postmodifier.

Adverbial Premodifiers are:

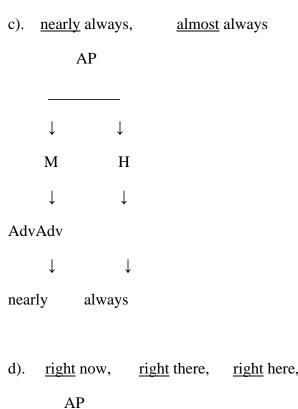

1. Intensifiers: very, quite, too, fairly, rather, extremely, so, really

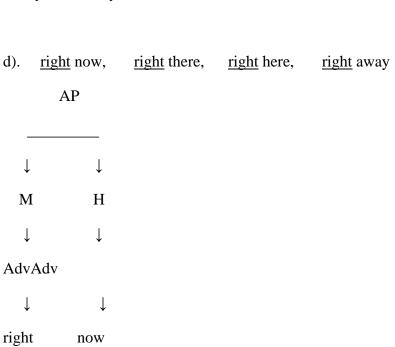

e.g.very carefully

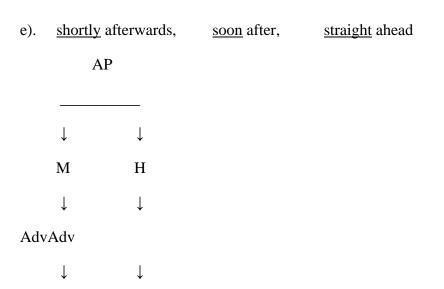

2.Some particular (special) adverbs:

e.g.a). over there,		down there,	around there
